

We have an immediate opening at our headquarters in Geeste, Emsland, Germany, for a committed

Sales Coordination Manager (m/f/d)

Help us on our way to further growth

With 1,000 employees in Germany and throughout the world, and an annual turnover of around 219 million euros, Klasmann-Deilmann is the leading corporate group in the international substrate industry. Our first-class products meet the most stringent requirements of commercial growers. You will find us a modern, family-friendly company that helps our employees find the right work-life balance.

A stimulating job awaits you

- Group-wide coordination of strategic sales projects
- Assisting with product launches
- Preparing and supporting market research in cooperation with local sales companies
- Participating in international acquisition projects
- Involvement in projects to optimise production processes
- Creating standardised tools for sales management

A place where you can develop your strengths

- Business or comparable degree
- Relevant professional experience an advantage
- A strong market focus and communication skills
- Ability to grasp things quickly and a talent for organisation
- Analytical, solution-focused and independent approach to work
- An excellent command of English
- Willingness to travel in Germany and abroad

We have a great deal to offer

If you want to contribute fresh ideas that make a difference, you are just who we need. We look forward to receiving your application stating your salary expectations and possible start date.

we make it grow